

You Can't Vote Here Anymore - Or Didn't You Know?

When government officials make decisions, such as voting redistricting, they must let their citizens know. That's why the state requires them to publish their actions through public notices in newspapers.

But some government officials would prefer to bury public notices on little seen rarely visited government websites or in small circulated media

If it is not in this newspaper you won't know about it!

Call us to learn more
THE WESTERN OBSERVER
325-823-3253