

*Construction will begin in your city
or hadn't you
heard?*

Some governmental entities are publishing public notices on websites and publications that are rarely seen, which is taking business from your community and keeping residents in the dark.

Don't let your government take jobs from your community and money from your bank account. Let your officials know you want your public notices printed in your local newspaper.

THE WESTERN OBSERVER